

La Paulée de New York

Wine Spectator

Burgundy Bacchanal

By BRUCE SANDERSON
Published in March 6, 2007

“The biggest problem at La Paulée de New York is keeping up and keeping track of all the great Burgundies circulating.

I tasted more than 40 wines. The standouts for me were the Ramonet Montrachet 1986, Domaine de la Romanée-Conti Richebourg 1990, Bouchard Père & Fils Corton 1961, Rousseau Chambertin 1996, DRC Richebourg 1966 (the wine that hooked me on Burgundy when I tasted it in 1991), Ponsot Clos de la Roche 1990 and Dujac Clos St.-Denis 1993.

I was still scribbling away by 10:45 pm, when Les Cadets de Bourgogne were singing ‘New York, New York.’ Now, if I could only read my notes on those last few wines.”

The full article is available here.