Les Cadets de Bourgogne performed for the guests of La Paulée.

“Burgundy lovers are a special breed. Not even the recession could prevent hundreds of them from enjoying New York’s biggest Burgundy party, La Paulée de New York, on March 5 – 7... In all, about 1500 bottles were uncorked at the gala dinner. A La Paulée tradition is that everyone brings their own bottles. That made for an incredible end to a Burgundian weekend.”
